DRIVING ELECTRIC IN EUROPE: THE CHALLENGES OF THE ELECTRIC CAR

PART TWO: CHARGING STATIONS

BY CORENTIN DELSARD,
TRANSLATED BY ANNA WALTHER

ELECTRIC VEHICLES (EVS) HAVE SEEN THEIR MARKET DEVELOP SIGNIFICANTLY IN 2020. HOWEVER, AMONG THE PROBLEMS THIS EXPANSION HAS UNCOVERED IS THE DISPARITY OF CHARGING STATIONS AVAILABLE ACROSS THE CONTINENT. THE STAKES ARE HIGH FOR A RESPONSE TO THE PRACTICAL ISSUES SURROUNDING ELECTRIC CAR USAGE.

MIGRANT CHILDREN IN CARE FACE AN IMMIGRATION SYSTEM RIGGED AGAINST THEM

BY AARON GATES-LINCOLN

The track record of the UK government on ensuring migrants are awarded access to all the rights they deserve and are entitled to is not one to hold in high regard. It is now being expected that, as a result of Brexit, another group of migrants are going to be robbed of their chance at life in the UK due to systems rigged against their favour.

BY NICHOLAS KULAWIAK

Last month, Viktor Orbán's Fidesz party left the European People's Party (EPP) delegation in the European Parliament.

While Fidesz's departure was years in the making, the immediate trigger was an EPP vote to change internal rules, allowing for parties to be expelled.
